“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am very sorry to learn of your loss. May the God of all comfort provide you with the support needed during this time of great sorrow. God is aware of your pain. His word tells us: “He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isaiah 25:8) This gives us hope of being reunited with our loved ones who are sleeping in death. As dead loved ones come forth from their graves, the earth will be filled with joy as never before. Mark 5:39-42 and Rev. 21:13 May meditating on this future miracle bring you comfort.

“ I am so sorry to hear of the passing of your loved one. As you prepare to lay them to rest; to sleep in death for just a little while (John 11:11) I hope your family will find solace in the resurrection promise of Jesus; to awaken those who are now sleeping in death (John 5:28,29) to restore them back to life; this time with the hope to live eternally on the renewed Paradise earth, so that God's will, will be done on the earth, as it is in Heaven..-Matthew 6:9,10; Luke 23:43. Until that wonderful blessed promise is fulfilled, and you are reunited with your loved one again; may God(Psalms 83:18) soothe your grieving hearts now and grant you peace and comfort, during this most sadden time..-Matthew 5:4.
