

Fannie Mae Bowman-Morrison

September 17, 1951 - March 18, 2017

Fannie Mae Bowman-Morrison was born September 17, 1951 in Exmore, Virginia to the parents of Minnie Bell and Buster Bowman. She departed this life peacefully on Saturday, March 18, 2017.

Fannie spent most of her early years growing up in the South before moving to Delaware in the mid 60's. She attended school in Milford.

Fannie married and two children were birthed from this union: Stacey and Pamela, whom she affectionately called "Punkin" and "Timmy". Fannie was a devoted mother to her children and modeled and taught them how to maneuver through life. She taught her girls how to cook, save money, get out of debt, give to others, and how to present yourself to the world with style, grace, and class like no other. She encouraged her children to get their education and to always stick together.

Fannie didn't play when it came to her children. When Pam was in the second grade, the teacher wouldn't allow her to clean the erasers at school. What did Fannie do? In true fashion she marched up to the school and told the teacher that she'd better let her baby clean those erasers or she'd be back out there to get her.

Fannie also loved her grandchildren and her great-grandchildren.

Fannie was big on family. She loved every one of her 10 brothers and sisters. She would talk about them but you'd better not talk about them. She shared her fond memories about each one; how Harvey cooked black birds for them to eat and how he taught her to defend herself when girls picked on her; how she wanted to follow after her two older sisters whom she thought were so beautiful; how she enjoyed going on vacation with her younger sisters, and how she enjoyed spending time with all of her younger brothers.

In 2015, Fannie began to get serious about seeking out the Heavenly Father for herself. She sought to have a better understanding of who he is. Her favorite book of the bible was the gospel according to Matthew.

Fannie enjoyed entertaining. She hosted many birthdays and socials at her home. She had a big heart and would give her last to someone else if they were in need.

During her short illness, she had a positive and peaceful spirit. Surrounded by her children, she continued to teach and continued to show them-even in sickness-how they are to conduct themselves.

Fannie is preceded in death by her parents, Minnie Bell and Buster Bowman; one brother, Bobbie Johnson, and one nephew, TJ Bowman. She leaves to mourn her two children, Stacey Mae Morrison and Pamela Ann Morrison, both of Dover; one granddaughter, Anastasia Amber Monique Morrison (affectionately called Cookie) of Harrington; one grandson, Brandon Morgan David White of Dover; two great grandchildren, Tyasia Breanna Hicks and Trinity Unique Hicks both of Harrington. She also leaves five sisters, Emma Jean Gardner (Jake), Shirley Ann Hughes (Ronald), Shirley Lee Bowman, Roxanne Bowman-Ross (Michael) and Mary Ann Bowman-Parker (Rick); five brothers, Harvey Lee Bowman (Gloria-Jean), Horace Lee Bowman, Charles Edward Bowman, J.T. Bowman, and Thomas Lee Bowman (Arlene) and a host of nieces and nephews.

To send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Fannie Mae Bowman-Morrison, please visit our Heartfelt Sympathies Store.

Tribute Wall

GB

“ *In the loss of your Mother
There's so much that should be said at this time, but no words seem adequate. Just hope you know you're being thought about and cared about... and hope you find special comfort in knowing that your mother- and all she meant to you- will remain in your heart forever.*

Love (Garry & Anita Baldwin)

Garry & Anital Baldwin - April 03, 2017 at 12:00 AM

DS

“ *Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one.
The bible tells of a time when death, sickness and pain will be gone forever. Please look forward to that time. Also, look forward to the fulfillment of Acts 24:15, which tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please take comfort in the bible during your time of grief, and may the God of all comfort give you peace at this most difficult time.*

Doretha Sampson - March 25, 2017 at 12:00 AM

KS

“ God makes no mistakes family, her work here was done she gone home to rest with the Lord. She was the best childcare provider for Jaraye. She will be missed. May God bless you and keep you.

Katria Stevens, Jaraye, and Ann Dixon Stevens - March 24, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GW

“ I am sorry for your loss, please accept my sincere condolences. I hope the family will find some comfort and strength in Jesus promise of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15)and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4;John 5:28,29;Luke 23:43. may GOD(Psalms 83:18)grant you peace and comfort now, during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

Gertrude Williams - March 22, 2017 at 12:00 AM

LS

“ Stacey and Family,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your mother. My thoughts and prayers are with you at this time. Stacey, you are missed in Capital School District. Linda Schreppler

Linda Schreppler - March 22, 2017 at 12:00 AM

PM

“ Stacy,
I am so sorry for your loss. May she rest in peace.
Love and prayers for you and your family.
Patty

Patty Maximo - March 22, 2017 at 12:00 AM

GR

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. At difficult times like this it is so important to comfort and support one another as family and friends (Proverbs 17:17). Much comfort and a sure hope for the future can also be derived by means of God's Word, the Bible (Jeremiah 29:11). In God's Word Jesus promises that one day he will bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). Jesus helps us to appreciate how important it is that we exercising faith in that promise (John 11:25). Also, there is very exciting news for the living and for those who come back to life! God promises that there will be a time when those who have died and come back to life will experience something they have never seen before, a life free from pain, suffering, wickedness, and death (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10,11,29)! What a glorious time that will be thanks to Almighty God, the God of All Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). All He asks of us is that we do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). Taking in knowledge of Him and His son will help us to do that (John 17:3). Please read all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted with the hope ahead (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

George & Chris Ragusa - March 21, 2017 at 12:00 AM