“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for the loss of your loved one. Take comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs or grave will be resurrected or raised up back to life in conditions free from sickness and death (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4). These are few of many comforting scriptures.

“ Please accept our condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible describes death as an enemy (1 Corinthians 15:26) and it surely is that! As you are comforted and supported by family and friends, we would like to share a couple of comforting expressions and promises from the God of the Bible. Jesus promises, for example, that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). What a glorious day that will be! But not only that but one such ones are brought back to life, they are going to experience another promise from where all the pain, suffering, and death will no longer exist (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). As brought out in His Word, the Bible, God's purpose has always been for mankind to enjoy life forever on a beautiful paradise earth (Genesis 1:28; Isaiah 45:18). What God promises, we can be assured that it will come to pass (Isaiah 55:10, 11). Until then we are encouraged to learn what God's will is and to live our life by it and be blessed (1 Timothy 2:3, 4; John 17:3). When you can please look these scriptures up on your own Bible and be comforted (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). If you wish to talk more on what the Bible reveals to all of us, we were feel privileged and honored to do so. You can contact us by means of our email. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
