“ To all family and friends,
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Many have found true comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37:11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). At John 8:32 Jesus said " and you will know the truth and the truth will set you free". For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. As we understandably grieve at times like we reflect on how fragile and precious life truly is (James 4:14; Psalm 36:9). In God's Word, the Bible Jesus tells us that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). It is so important that we fully believe what Jesus will (John 11:25). When the dead arise the Bible tells us that they will experience something mankind has never seen. Almighty God is going to remove forever all the pain, suffering, and death humans have endured for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8). What a glorious day that will be! Until then God wants us to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:16). Please read these scriptures from your Bible and be comforted by the God of All Comfort (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
