Floyd Lee Sykes, Jr. a resident of Fruitland, Maryland formerly from Salisbury, Maryland where he was born and raised, passed away on Friday, February 4, 2022, at his home in Fruitland, Maryland at 7:10 am. Floyd loved his family and friends, but family more than anything else. Every day, before and after work, he would stop by his mom's just to check on her and spend time with her letting her know daily how much he loved her. He also loved spending time with his cousins, nephew and son every chance he got.

In his spare time, Floyd loved going fishing. He also enjoyed playing cards with his family and just having a good time. He enjoyed coaching, teaching his younger family members about life and being the boss of everyone. He was top dog, and nobody could tell him anything different.

The life memories of Floyd will be cherished by: his mother, Kurley Ann Jones and his father Floyd Lee Sykes, Sr., both of Salisbury, MD; his children, Rashawn Sykes of Salisbury, MD, Chakyra Sykes of Seaford, DE, De'Selena Skykes of Salisbury, MD, Gabriella Sykes of Fruitland, MD, Sky Lightfoot of Salisbury, MD, Jaden Spence of Salisbury, MD and Jiara Thomas of Baltimore, MD; his siblings, Jermaine Jones of Laurel, MD, Marquito (Tiquan) Purnell of Salisbury, MD, Latosha (Marcus) Cannon of Salisbury, MD, Cierra (Mason) Burrell of Salisbury, Maryland and Randy Nelson and Ebony Jones, both of Salisbury, MD; his grandmother, Mary Elizabeth Wright of Salisbury, MD and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews.

“ *My love and loyalty is to my BRO
We watched each other grow!
We encouraged each other
When we felt low!
How can I take not seeing
YOU NO MORE!!!
HEARING YOU NO MORE
LAUGHING WITH YOU NO MORE!
HUGGING YOU NO MORE!
I'm afraid to see you lying still!!
I don't know how to feel!
You been in my life ,MY WHOLE LIFE!
THIS DOESN'T FEEL RIGHT!
You called on me when things wasn't right!
You encouraged me to be better
You said sis, "You don't have to be at every fight! Your doing good!
We was so tight!
You encouraged me to grow!
Whose going to encourage me now?
How can I smile when I feel so down?
You had so much planned,
You became a good father and man!!!!*
