

Floyd Wallop Jr.

May 12, 1935 - August 7, 2017

Floyd Thomas Wallop, Jr, affectionately known as “Sugarboy,” was born on May 12, 1935, in Horntown, Virginia. He the 3rd of 15 children born to late Floyd, Sr. and Willie Wallop. Floyd was called into eternal rest on August 7, 2017 at home in Horntown, Virginia.

Floyd began his education in the Accomack County public school system, but left at an early age to help his parents raise his siblings. He held numerous jobs and nothing was beneath him, as long as he could support his family.

He met and married Beulah Dickerson in 1956 and from this union, they had three daughters and five sons. Even though he had been handicapped since 2007, he loved family get togethers and having family and friends visit. He kept a big smile on his face that made you feel loved and welcome.

He was baptized at Tabernacle Baptist Church and later joined Deas Chapel United Methodist Church. He maintained his confession of salvation.

Floyd leaves to cherish great memories with: his wife, Beulah Wallop; two daughters, Arnette Gaskins and Eunice Wallop; two sons, Floyd Wallop, III and Larry Dickerson, all of Horntown, Virginia; two children whom he raised as his own, Juanita (Bennie) Coleman of Greenbush, Virginia and Hillard Dickerson of Savageville, Virginia; 19 grandchildren; 43 great grandchildren and 2 great–great grandchildren; three sisters, Joyce Taylor (William), Jacquelin Miles (Sterling) and Teresa Wallop (Lanny); three brothers, Lawrence Wallop (Betty), Grant Wallop (Linda) and Dale Wallop (Lisa); 3 brothers-in-law; 5 sisters-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one son Elvis Wallop, two great granddaughters, four sisters and four brothers.

We had our cup of sorrow,
We've drunk our cup of joy;
But memory is one gift,
That death cannot destroy.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be. So, we send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about good news from Almighty God. We are in no way trying to impose our faith on you, but sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17). As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28,29). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason as well as others, He promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10,11,29). Truly, what a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality though for God cannot lie (Titus 1:2). It is our hope that you not take our word for what has been written; but that you take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures and be comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are sincerely with all of you.
