

Floyd Thomas Wallop III

September 12, 1960 - December 2, 2022

FLOYD'S JOURNEY

Floyd Thomas Wallop III, beloved son of Beulah Wallop and the late Floyd Thomas Wallop, Jr., was born on September 12, 1960, in Salisbury, Maryland. He departed this life and entered into eternal rest on December 2, 2022, surrounded by family at his daughter's home in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

Floyd, affectionately known as "Stuffy", received his education in the Accomack County public school system. In his early Christian journey, he joined Dea's Chapel United Methodist Church, but would later join New Beginnings Outreach Ministries in 2001. Floyd was a faithful servant and did whatever his hands could find to do to support his church. Stuffy was Bishop Collins' right hand man and armor bearer when the ministry first began. He also drove the church van, picking up those in need of a ride to church. Stuffy loved to read the Bible and was full of God-given wisdom and knowledge of His word. He led many of his own family members to Christ and to church. Some of these same family members still remain at New Beginnings today!

Stuffy enjoyed all outdoor activities, fixing vehicles, playing cornhole, listening to music, caring for animals, and collecting all things. He devoted a lot of his time to help various members of the community. Stuffy was truly a friend to all.

Left to cherish precious memories are: his mother, Beulah Wallop; three children, Calissa Austin, Shaketta V. Austin-Townsend (Ronnie) and Jakava Wallop (Ciara); fourteen grandchildren; three brothers, Hillard Dickerson, Larry Dickerson, and Rufus Christopher; four sisters, Juanita Coleman, Eunice Wallop, Arnette Gaskins and Linda Christopher; special nieces, Marcella Washington and Shekienna Corbin; special uncle, Lawrence Wallop; his caregiver Annette Austin-Smith and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends.

Floyd was preceded in death by: his father, Floyd Thomas Wallop Jr.; his brother, Elvis Wallop; his granddaughter, Kayla Austin and his niece Whitney Christopher.
