“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.

“ Dear Family, though your hearts are heavy with pain and sorrow right now, over the loss of your dear loved one, but know that our heavenly Father did not leave you without hope. God did not create mankind to suffer the sting of death. He lovingly provided hope of one day being reunited with our loved ones. Acts 24:15; Revelation 21:4; Hosea 13:14. “ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences to you for the loss of your loved one. During such difficult times as this we can take comfort in Almighty God's promises that one day his beloved son, Jesus Christ will bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That will truly be such a glorious and faith-strengthening day! So, please take comfort in the days ahead knowing what is in store for all who have died (Revelation 21:3, 4). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
