Frances Kay Myers

Frances Kay Myers was called home on November 3, 2022. No more suffering, you are finally free of pain. Rest in Paradise with Wilson Myers, Jr. (aka) Joe and your parents as they await your arrival at the Pearly gates. You can see them once again.

Frances K. Myers was born on August 3, 1950 in Easton, Maryland to the late William and Elsie Bailey.

After receiving her formal education at Robert Moton High School, Frances worked as a chef, school bus driver and a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA). She loved her jobs but she also believed in living her best life to the fullest. She was a loving and caring person who enjoyed hanging with family and friends.

Frances loved to cook and feed people who were in need of food. She also loved to dance, have fun and she enjoyed going to eat some good food at her son-in-law Donald's house.

Preceding Frances in death were her parents, William and Elsie Bailey and her husband, Wilson Myers, Jr.

She leaves to mourn: her children, Tracy L. Bailey, Sr. (Clarissa) of Middletown, Connecticut, Dorishelle L. McKnight (Donald) of Federalsburg, Maryland and Herbert Wilkins, Jr. (Karen) of Easton, Maryland; brothers, William T. Bailey (Portia) of Unionville, Maryland and Timothy Bailey of Torrance, California; sister, Elsie M. Groce (James) of Felton, Delaware; special friend, Herbert Wilkins, Sr.; step-daughters, Jackie Burrus of New Jersey and Jennifer Ellis (Raymond) of Virginia; sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law of North Carolina and Virginia; 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren; longtime friends, Shirley Small, Mildred Wayman and Herman Prattis and a host of nieces, nephews and loved ones.
