

Frances Woolford

October 27, 1920 - January 24, 2017

Obituary

Frances Virginia Woolford, daughter of the late Stephen and Eleanor Holbrook, was born on October 27, 1920 in Venton, Maryland. On Tuesday, January 24, 2017, she departed this life at the age of 96 at home in the loving care of family and the Hospice of the Chesapeake Nursing Staff. She was married to the late Walton Purnell Woolford "Skinny" and enjoyed this union until the Lord took him home August 3, 1968. Of this union, they were blessed with nine children.

Frances was educated in the Somerset County School System. She started work at a very early age, working in the fields throughout Somerset County alongside her father and siblings. She also worked in neighboring Canning Factories peeling and canning tomatoes .

After being employed by the Campbell Soup Company in Salisbury, Maryland for approximately 44 years, at age 62 she retired and as she would tell you “didn’t work a tap since then”. She enjoyed attending church at Grace United Methodist Church, Venton, Maryland; Trinity United Methodist Church, Mt. Vernon, Maryland and Restoration Fellowship Center, Upper Marlboro, Maryland. Her daily routine would include working on word search puzzles, and watching game shows, especially the Steve Harvey Show (Family Feud). She proved that agility has no age limit when she took her first airplane flight in 2013 to Disney World at the ripe old age of “92”. Enjoying every moment of it, she flew like a pro.., sitting in a window seat enjoying all the views of God’s creation. To know her was to love her. She leaves to cherish her loving memory five children, Stephen (Linda) Woolford, Oaksville, Maryland; Harold (Jackie) Woolford, Newark, Delaware; Michael (Marcie) Woolford, Simpsonville, South Carolina; Attrue (Trudy) Gayle, Upper Marlboro, Maryland; Alma (Vic) Doane, Catonsville, Maryland, one very special god-son Harold “Buster” Jones, Salisbury, Maryland; 19 grandchildren; 46 great grandchildren; 30 great great grandchildren; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. She was preceded in death by four children Ida Woolford, Holland “Donald,” Woolford, Delores “Lois” Woolford-Handy, and James “Jimmy” Woolford; two great grandchildren, Antoinette “Nettie” Murray and Richard “Big Head” Murray Jr.; a faithful companion of over

35 years George Johnson, Sr.; a brother, Johnny (Marie) Holbrook “Johnny Boy”, two sisters

Annie Jones, Mable (Sarah Jane) Wall; and a brother in law, Milton Jones Sr.

“Trudy, my prayers go out to you and your family on the loss of your Mom. My bible tells me that "We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord." May you find comfort in knowing your Mom is now at rest with the Lord.

Gale and I send our condolences and prayers to uplift you in this time of need. Blessings always, as we pray in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus The Christ.
