Francisco attended public school in Jamaica, but moved to New York in 1970; where he completed high school and college. He worked for HRA in Brooklyn, New York and other various jobs and was very kind to all he met.

Francisco loved to pass his spare time playing the horses. He met the love of his life, Toni, 8 years ago on the bus in Brooklyn and a romance sparked between them.

Francisco was known to his family and friends as Jr., Kid and Moose. He was loved dearly by most that knew him. He was kind most of the time, but he could get on your last nerve at other times. If you got through to Jr's heart you were loved deeply.
