Franklin's Journey...

Franklin Allen Mitchell, lovingly known as Frank, was born in Nanticoke, Maryland on February 14, 1941 to the late Franklin Wesley Mitchell and Amy Oletha Jones-Mitchell. Frank departed this life on Saturday, October 23, 2021 at Tidal Health in Salisbury, Maryland.

He received his formal education through the Wicomico County public school system. He later enlisted in the United States Army, where he served during the Vietnam War. After receiving an honorable discharge, he began his career as a professional truck driver, working for B. Greene and later Pritchett Transportation. Frank retired from transportation and then worked for Wicomico County Landfill as a heavy equipment operator until he fully retired.

For over fifty (50) years, he shared a loving union with his wife, Helen Mitchell. Frank was a hard working man, who knew how to enjoy life and liven up any room he entered. In his spare time, he enjoyed cars, yard work, spending time with family and his best friend, Norman Oliver. Frank was also a member of the VFW and American Legion.

Frank leaves to cherish precious memories: his wife, Helen Mitchell; his children, Frank (Priscilla) Jones and Melissa (Melvin) Johnson, both of Salisbury, Maryland and Victoria Johnson (Karlus Gamble) of Eden, Maryland; twelve grandchildren; thirty-nine great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren; his siblings, Amy Jeannette Robinson and James (Linda) Schuman Mitchell of Salisbury, Maryland, Sandra Smith of Baltimore, Maryland and a sister-in-law, Emma Mitchell of West Virginia, a host of nieces, nephews and cousins.

Frank was preceded in death by his sister, Dorine Griffith formerly of Salisbury, Maryland, his brother, Daniel Mitchell, formerly of West Virginia and his daughter, Francine Jones, formerly of Delmar, Maryland.
