

Fred Davis Jr.

August 20, 1952 - October 27, 2018

Fred Davis, Jr. departed this life on October 27, 2018 in Wilmington, Delaware. He remained in a coma after falling ill in early October. He lost his battle and was called home to join his heavenly family.

Fred Davis was affectionately known by his family and friends as Fred, Jr. or Gas. He was one of seven children born to Frazier Earl and Flossie Mae Davis.

He liked to work outside and was employed by Emmett Taylor for years as a farmer. Later in life, Fred was employed by NASA at Wallops Island, Virginia as a landscaper/grounds keeper and retired for health reasons.

Fred, Jr. married Gertrude Ward in 1972 and had three children from that union. He moved to Maryland with his companion and spent a lot of time with her children. He loved working on cars and rebuilding engines and he also developed a love for cooking.

Fred, Jr. is survived by: his children, Robert Williams, Angela Davis, Fred Davis III, Alan Miller, Allison Miller, Allen Smith and Maurice Smith; his companion, Shirley Smith; sisters, Audrey Wharton and Helen (Andrew) Campbell; brothers, Lowell (Nancy) Davis and Tyrone (Teresa) Davis and a host of grandchildren and great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, one son, Joseph Davis and two brothers, Charles and Richard Davis.
