

Fred E. Spellman

November 16, 1924 - February 27, 2013

Fred E. Spellman, Sr. (Jack) , born to William and Sarah Spellman on November 16, 1924 in Currituck County, NC, went to be with the Lord on February 27, 2013, at Milford Memorial Hospital.

Jack began his education in North Carolina; however, because of the loss of his father at an early age he had to quit school to support his mother and sister, this enabled him to be the best husband, father and provider to his immediate family. Working was never a challenge for Jack for taking care of his family was always top priority. He spent many years in the poultry industry and later took great joy working for George Jester Sanitation.

Jack gave his life to Christ later in life and joined the Mt. Zion Church in Georgetown, DE, where he was well loved and respected by all, especially the young men. Cutting grass and loving to work outside, particularly with his next door neighbor Mrs. Shirley, made his day. It was always a good time for Jack, when he as an older man, would wipe the smiles off the faces of those younger jitterbugs playing pool. There was no stopping the cheers when his favorite team, the Baltimore Orioles, won a game. Baseball was his favorite sport, as he played pitcher for the Green Top baseball team.

Preceding him in death, were his parents William and Sarah Spellman; his only sister, Estella Sawyer and his son, Fred E. Spellman, Jr.

He leaves to mourn his wife of 65 years, Marjorie Spellman of Milton, DE; five daughters, Gladys (Raymond) Kiser of Milford, DE, Diane (Joseph) White of Lincoln, DE, Jacqueline (Andrew) Jefferson of Anaheim, CA, Janice Greene of Lincoln, DE and Angela (Clarence) Sample of Millsboro, DE; one name-saked cousin and second son, Fred Trotman of Ellendale, DE; two sisters-in-law, Martha Daniels of Lincoln, DE and Fannie Seymour of Boston, MA; 22 grandchildren, and a host of great-grand and great-great grandchildren, nieces, cousins and nephews, as well as friends.

Tribute Wall

JJ

“ Mr. Spellman was a very dear friend to our family. He was a very loving friend and neighbor. He will be missed dearly. He will forever have a special place in our hearts♥ We have another awesome angel watching over us.. RIP Mr. Jack♥ To his family and friends you are all in our thoughts and prayers. God Bless..

Julie Jennings - March 04, 2013 at 12:00 AM

MJ

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I pray you will find peace and comfort in Jesus' words about all those who have fallen asleep in death: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out".-John 5:28,29. Just imagine the joy and happiness of being reunited with your love one, just as Jesus promised.-Acts 24:15; John 11:38-44. May Jehovah God continue to comfort and bless the Spellman's Family.- Isaiah 66:13.

Mattie Jones - February 27, 2013 at 12:00 AM