

Freda Ann Elaine Collins (Piper)

May 11, 1945 - January 8, 2019

Freda Ann Elaine Piper Collins of Salem, New Jersey, was born on Friday, May 11, 1945, in Milford, Delaware. She was the fourth child of Georgiana and Howard H. Piper Sr. She departed this life after a brief illness, on Tuesday, January 8, 2019. She was 73.

She attended William Henry High School and then studied Social Work at Delaware State College, now Delaware State University. During this time, she married her high school sweetheart, George Edward Collins. They would go on to celebrate 51 years of marriage.

Freda worked at the Salem Nuclear Plant in Lower Alloways Creek, New Jersey, for many years, before continuing her career at McLane Company in Penns Grove, New Jersey. She retired from McLane Company in 2017.

She made many long lasting friendships at both companies and cherished the time spent with those special friends. Everyone who knew Freda knows she never met a stranger. She enjoyed conversations with her family and friends as well as strangers in stores. Freda also enjoyed reading, spending time with her family and shopping.

Freda is survived by daughters, Shirlyn Collins Battle (Craig) of Dover, DE and Wandulyn Collins of Quinton, NJ; son, Darryl Collins of Bear, DE and granddaughter, Sidney Battle of Quinton, NJ. She had a great love of children and was "Mom-Mom Freda" to Kiauna Collins, Erica Collins, Frank Anderson, Jasmin Burnett, Tatiano Danzo and her children, Keenan, Keeana, Michael and Amaya. She had a special relationship with nieces and nephews, James Horsey (Lillian), Kamryn Brinkley and Andrea Harris and her children, Marcus and Briana. Freda is also survived by brother, Howard H. Piper, Jr. and special niece, Felicia Pickett.

In addition to her parents and husband, Freda was preceded in death by sisters, Avis Horsey and Vermidel Piper; and stepdaughter, Cornethia Collins Anderson.

Freda, with her upbeat positive outlook on life, brought sunshine to all who knew her.

Amazing Mother - Awesome Grand-mom, Faithful Friend.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. In such difficult time, many families appreciate the comfort offered by the Bible of the time when no one will lose a loved one in death and we will be able to enjoy life again with our loved one. (Isaiah 41: 10). I hope these thoughts comfort you

“ We are so sorry for your loss. When this happens in our family we need more than human strength. God and his Son can provide what we need. Please review these scriptures : John 5:28-29 \u201cDo not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.\u201d Revelation 21:4 \u201cAnd he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.
