Obituary

God saw the road was getting rough; the hills were hard to climb.
He gently closed your weary eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine."

Freddie White, a resident of Snow Hill, Maryland, peacefully entered into eternal rest on Friday, January 24, 2020 at his home at the age of sixty-five (65). He was born on May 2, 1954 to the late Annie Ruth White in Tampa, Florida.

Freddie received his formal education in Tampa, Florida, but left, Florida and came to Maryland where he met the Ballard Family. Freddie gave his life to God and was so happy about it. Whenever you asked him how he felt, he would always say, God got me! I am not worried.

Freddie worked various places of employment including Frank Jones Lumber Company, Kelly's Food Beach Club Golf Course and the Town of Ocean City. As he neared his retirement because of his disability, he started working for Richard and Terri Jackson of Newark, Maryland as Property Manger. Freddie took his keys very seriously and would call Richard every day to see what needed to be done. He loved to BBQ, watch westerns, play cards and watch his favorite football team, the Dallas Cowboys.

Freddie leaves precious memories with: his daughter, Shyree (Maurice, Sr.) Hudson of Snow Hill, Maryland; his grandchildren, Shy'Asia Blake and Maurice Hudson, Jr.; two brothers, Jimmy White and Gilbert White; one sister, Jane White; two god daughters, Tammy Tanya Jackson and Carolyn Henry, both of Pocomoke City, Maryland; the love of his life, Ruthann Fisher of Snow Hill, Maryland; close special friends, Billy Jackson, Janice Hall, Richard and Terri Jackson and all the Ballard Family.

Sorrowfully Submitted,
The Family
