

Frederick D. Conquest

February 4, 1960 - June 5, 2015

Frederick Douglas Conquest, better known as "Base", "The Base Man", departed this life on Friday, June 5, 2015 at Christiana Care Hospital in Wilmington, Delaware. Base was born on Thursday, February 4, 1960 in Laurel, Delaware. Base was preceded in death by his loving mother, Gladys M. Dale; his grandparents, Earl & Priscilla Conquest and one aunt, Ethel Mae Oney.

Base was a people-person who loved to cook for everyone. Base had a heart of gold. He was a man you could not argue with because he was always right. Base was an avid New England Patriots fan. No one could tell him anything about his Patriots. His favorite saying was; "Be strong, don't show any signs of weakness". He loved his family and his family loved him. BUT, Base made sure the family knew that he was the oldest. Base received his education in the Laurel School District, where he excelled in several sports. Frederick was employed at Gordy's Sawmill for several years and later, Standard Steel Company in Wilmington, Delaware.

Base is survived by two sons, Dion Kellam and Courtney Kellam of Laurel; three brothers: Michael "Teena" Dale of Seaford, Delaware; Patrick Fountain of Laurel, Delaware and Rodney Dale, also of Seaford, Delaware; one sister; Demenika "Missy" Dale of Mardela Springs, Maryland; a great aunt Gertrude Winder of Seaford; two aunts, Mary Oney of Seaford, Delaware and Esther Daniels of Laurel, Delaware; three grandchildren: Aleyah Dickerson, Rashid Duncan and Jayda Dickerson and one great-grandchild, Cali Drummond; and a host of other family and friends.
