

Gardner Dickerson Jr.

May 9, 1949 - July 23, 2025

Remembering Gardner Dickerson, Jr.

Gardner Dickerson, Jr., affectionately known as "Good Foot," was born on May 9, 1949, to Gardner, Sr. and Lillian Dickerson in Atlantic, Virginia. He gained his wings and departed this life early Wednesday morning, July 23, 2025, at the University of Maryland Medical Center in Baltimore, Maryland.

Gardner received his education in the public schools of Accomack County. He was employed by the Refuge Inn of Chincoteague, Virginia. He worked for many years until retirement. He had a passion for rabbit hunting and loved his rabbit dogs. Gardner's favorite saying was love, and love to all that knew him.

Gardner was preceded in death by his loving parents, Gardner, Sr. and Lillian Dickerson and four brothers, Marion, Winfield, Lawrence, and James.

He leaves to cherish loving memories: his son, Steve (Kisha) Seargent of Spotsylvania, Virginia; one daughter, Rashonda White of Newport News, Virginia; three grandchildren, Khai and Iyana Seargent, and Saniyar White; one sister-in-law, Essie Mae Dickerson; two special nephews, Arthur (Darlene) Dickerson, Jr., and Jerry Justice and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives, and friends.

“ Gardner, I will never forget he & Louis they both spearheaded me some sixty years ago. They were both very good 'pool players' and I was inspired by both of them to learn and play the game and I did. I followed both at that time between two venues (Milton Wharton's and Micky Milbourn's) "Wattsville, Va./Atlantic, Va. and the two of them were 'Gooood' & Tough' along with Ricky, Charles, Lafayette & myself at that time. We all took a great deal of pride in our game individually and it was only because of Gardner/Louis along with there sometimes "Trash Talking" in which we all took serious at that time. Charles Crippen certainly took advantage of it and I followed suit. Gardner/Louis, I got my azzz kicked but I kicked some azzz too on that learning journey. Gardner, (Cuz) & Louis my two favorite players along with a few others. Gardner - (RIP)
