

Geardline Marie Schoolfield

March 25, 1943 - June 16, 2018

Geardline Marie Schoolfield was born on March 25, 1943 to the late Henry Johnson and Elizabeth Morris in Virginia.

Geardline was educated in the public schools of Accomack County, Virginia.

After receiving her education, she later moved to Maryland, where she met the love of her life, the late great Charles “Jack” Schoolfield. They were later married and shared five wonderful children.

Geardline was employed at Plim Plaza in Ocean City, Maryland for numerous years. She was later employed at Quality Inn Motel in Pocomoke, Maryland, where she worked until she began having health issues.

Geardline enjoyed spending her time with family and friends, when she wasn't either at the flea market or having fun riding around with her late sister. She just loved riding around, going to her favorite stores—Walmart, McDonald's, Dixieland and spending time with her oldest grandson ZaQuan Schoolfield. Geardline was a faithful member of her church where she would always help out when asked, whether she was feeling bad or not. Whenever asked to do something, her response would always be, “Okay, I got it.”

Loving memories will be cherished by: two sons, Elroy Schoolfield and Lester

Schoolfield, both of Pocomoke, Maryland; one brother, Calvin Morris and wife Roxie of Virginia; nine grandchildren, Michelle, Cintelle, Cathelina, Patrick , Shavonne, Shameka, Jerome, Kenyatta and Sherri; 16 great grandchildren; one son-in-law, Edwin Harvey of Pocomoke, Maryland; one daughter-in-law, Tonie Watson Schoolfield of New Carrollton, Maryland; two brothers-in-law, Linwood Schoolfield and his wife, Shirley and Willie Harmon; three sisters-in-law, Mildred Morris of Virginia and Estella Schoolfield and Jeanette Haymen, both of Pocomoke, Maryland.

She was preceded in death by: her husband, Charles “Jack” Schoolfield; two sons, Gregory and Charles Schoolfield, Jr.; her only daughter, Doris E. Harvey; five brothers, Elwood, Frankie, William, James “Pollie” and Earnest and two sisters, Irene Schoolfield and Mary Johnson.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
