

Geneva Gibbs

September 5, 1922 - January 9, 2013

GENEVA GIBBS was born on September 5, 1922 in Denton, Maryland to the late Daniel Staten and Elsie Pinkett. She departed this life on January 9, 2013.

Geneva was educated in the Caroline County School System. She graduated from Lockerman High School. After graduation, Geneva moved to Philadelphia where she did domestic work. During her employment with the Feuerstein Family, Geneva shared a special relationship with their daughter, Elaine. They maintained their bond throughout the years.

Geneva was a member of Metropolitan United Methodist Church in Denton, Maryland.

Geneva was married to Julius Gibbs. They resided in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania for awhile and then relocated to Mount Vernon, New York. During this time, Geneva and Julius liked hosting family and friends and enjoyed life. They loved going out on the town, traveling and sharing each other's company immensely. They resided in New York until her husband's passing in 1979. Then, Geneva returned to Denton, Maryland.

Although Geneva's ambulatory ability slowly declined when stricken with multiple sclerosis, it did not extinguish her zeal for enjoying life and people. In spite of her circumstances, she continued to have joy, strength and determination.

As an active resident of Envoy at Denton, Geneva thoroughly enjoyed participating in the daily activities such as making arts and crafts, playing word games or bingo. In addition, she loved people. She was extremely social and enjoyed striking up conversation and interacting with the residents and care staff.

Geneva leaves to cherish her memory: sons, Dwight Sr. and Kevin; grandchildren, Constance, Dwight Jr., Kimberly, and Kyra; great grandchildren, Kayla and Kacey; sister in-law, Sarah; brother in-law, Robert; and a host of family and friends. Geneva was pre-deceased by her husband, Julius and her siblings: Hester, Margaret, Lucille, and Daniel (Buddy).

“ I know this is a very difficult time for the family. Something that has always given me comfort is a scripture at Revelation 21:4, it says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." I sincerely hope this brings you some comfort.
