

George E. Brown

December 19, 1937 - December 7, 2016

George Emerson Brown

Early on Wednesday morning of December 07, 2016, death angels crept into the room of our loved one at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

George Emerson Brown was known by most as Emerson. He was the oldest of four children born to the late Merle and Hattie Brown in Sharptown, Maryland on December 19, 1937. He was educated at the Sharptown School in Sharptown, Maryland and the former Salisbury High School in Salisbury, Maryland. Though born and raised on Maryland's Eastern Shore, he relocated to Baltimore during his late twenties for work. He later retired from NGK-Locke, Incorporated, of Baltimore, following thirty-eight years of service. Upon his retirement, he returned to his home on the Shore. While back there, he increased his participation at Zion United Methodist Church in Sharptown, Maryland.

He also now enjoyed further freedom to pursue one of his greatest passions, which was the opportunity to work with his hands, while outside in the fresh air. Prior to his death, he was a patient at Genesis HealthCare for rehabilitation; there he became friends with many.

He leaves behind three children, including Perry Brown of Severna Park, Maryland and Karen and Lynn Brown, both of Salisbury, Maryland. He also leaves behind a compassionate and loving companion of fifty-two years, Helen Pinkett, as well as three grandchildren. One brother, Alfonzo Brown, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania and two sisters, Kathleen Niskey and Clementine (Raymond) Clark, of Sharptown, Maryland, also mourn the loss of their loved one.

“ Extending deepest sympathy to family and friends in this time of sorrow. Please find comfort in knowing that soon all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out. (John 5:28,29) Until that blessed day, may the GOD of all comfort grant you peace while many fond memories warm your hearts.

“ My name is Carlein. I am a Bible teacher. I am sorry for your loss. A scripture that has given me much comfort is Revelation 21.4 which promises that one day death shall be no more. I hope this truth brings you comfort also.
