

George Madison Clark Jr.

May 13, 1946 - December 28, 2020

George Madison Clark, Jr. departed this life to be with the Lord on Monday, December 28, 2020. He was born on May 13, 1946 in Sharon Hill, Pennsylvania to the late Helen and George Clark, Sr.

He received his education in the Darby Township public school system and was employed at Delaware Correctional Institution. After moving to the lower Eastern Shore, he worked in the Wicomico and Somerset County Correctional systems. Later he worked at Dove Pointe in Salisbury, Maryland in the transportation department.

George served in the Armed Forces. A man of many talents, he drove school buses and was employed at Somerset Community Services where he became visually impaired.

Also known as Clark, he had a genuine heart for doing the things he loved like working, cooking and building things. He had so much talent and freely shared his gifts with many.

George leaves to cherish good memories of his life: three daughters, Ronnie Clark, Taishowna Carter and Angie Grans Miller; four sons, Derrick (Rachel) and George Clark, Herbert McCloud and Anthony Winfield; sixteen (16) grandchildren; five (5) great grandchildren; his siblings, Della Asbury, Pearl

Williams, Jean Grobes, Marlene Clark, Maurice Clark and Norman (Patricia Clark); a special, dear companion of over twenty (20) years, Tammy Miles and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

He was preceded in death by one beloved sister, Elizabeth Bell.
