

George Samuel Green

March 25, 1925 - October 21, 2013

Deacon George Samuel Green, 88 of Baltimore, Maryland, was born on March 25, 1925 in Hopewell, Maryland to the late John Thomas Green and Rosie White Green. He departed this earth on Monday, October 21, 2013 after a lengthy illness.

He was educated in Somerset County, Maryland and was a talented self-taught man, often referred to as “A Jack of all Trades.” He ultimately retired after many years from Sherwin Williams in Crisfield, Maryland, where he was employed as a machinist. He was totally dedicated to his religion and performed the duties of deaconship as a lifelong member of the Glorious Church of the Lord Jesus Christ in Pocomoke City, Maryland.

George was an extremely well-spoken, articulate individual. His voice resonated over the radio airways many years in the airing of live church services. He loved to sing and was a member of the church choir, proudly providing a deep bass voice augmentation.

He leaves to celebrate his memory: his wife of 65 years, Lillie Richardson Green; three sons—Alvin (Nettie) Richardson of Warwick, Rhode Island, Gregory (Zenaida) Green of Baltimore, Maryland and Keith (Kerstin) Green, Chester, Virginia. He leaves four daughters from Baltimore, Maryland—Delores Mack, Sharon Mumford, Patricia Hargis, Sandra Johnson, and two from Hanover, Maryland, Gloria (Calvin) Jackson and Bonnie (Ketrich) Cropper. In addition to his children he leaves 29 grandchildren and 23 great grand children, other extended family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandchildren Warren Lewis, Pierre Pinkett, and Rotan Green and brothers Alphonso (Fox) Green, and Leroy Thomas Green Sr.
