“ *To The Family,
Please accept my condolence. I hope that you are able to draw comfort from the scriptures during this difficult time.
It mentions a time when all of humankind will have the privilege of reuniting with our loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28, 29 assure us that such an exciting time will definitely take place.
Again, you have my deepest sympathy*

“ My condolences to the family of Mr George Perry. Think about Adam and Eve disobeying God. Did their disobedience stop God from ever fulfilling his original purpose? John 3:16 answers that question. The Greatest display of Love God showed for mankind paved the way for not only everlasting life but also a resurrection hope for all John 5:28-29.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy to mankind and Almighty God promises that He is going to remove death, sickness and pain in the near future. (Revelation 21:3&4) Please take comfort in the scriptures during your time of grief and may the " God of all comfort" strengthen and bless your entire family.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your loved one. Words don't always ease the pain when you are grieving the death of a loved one, but I hope you will find comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection hope(Acts 24:15)when he will raise up those who are now sleeping in death(John 11:11) restoring them back to life, on the renewed Paradise earth(John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43) what a wonderful blessing to look forward too. Until then, may GOD (Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
