

George Frederick Quailes

December 16, 1930 - January 26, 2018

George Frederick Quailes aka Freddy, Short Leg Bulldog and Hawkbill, departed this life on Friday, January 26, 2018, at his home in Bridgeville, Delaware.

George was born on Tuesday, December 16, 1930, to the late Howard B. Quailes and Lena Ricketts Quailes. He attended school in Caroline County, Maryland. Early in his career he worked as a construction worker and later as a trucker. He retired from Mark IV Transportation Inc., of Bridgeville, Delaware, after many years of dedicated service. Trucking was his love and he did it with a spirit of excellence.

George attended Mount Moriah Church in Greenwood, Delaware under the leadership of Pastor Jerome Houston, where he accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized. He later became a member of Apostolic United Pentecostal Church in Federalsburg Maryland, under the leadership of Pastor Stanford B. Ricks.

George was a good, hard-working man who provided for his family, enjoyed going to breakfast, was very outgoing, (no one was a stranger to him) and he could "TALK" for hours. He loved his family (ask how many of his grand and great grandchildren whom he loved to pick with and tease constantly). He enjoyed his friends, the outdoors, maintaining his home and yard (which was one of his pride and joys) and last but not least, "TRUCKING".

George is survived by his devoted wife of 68 years, Wilsie Ardelia (Groce) Quailes, whom he married April 1, 1950. From this union were born eight children: (five boys and three girls).

In addition to his parents, George was preceded in death by three sisters: Clara Elizabeth Quailes, Irene Ricketts and Alice Lloyd; three brothers: Louis Quailes, Albert Quailes, David Quailes, and one half-brother Harlan (Hook) Roach; one son, Howard Nathaniel Quailes and one grandson, Keith Allen Quailes.

He leaves to cherish his memory seven children: Ardelia Ann Q. Hudson (Tommie) of New Castle, Delaware; Larry Frederick Quailes of New Castle, Delaware; Barry Eugene Quailes of Ocala, Florida; Constance Elaine Quailes of Wilmington, Delaware; Donald Wayne Quailes (Lupe) of San Juan, Texas; Alvin Sylvester Quailes of Seaford, Delaware and Vanessa Quailes Ricks (Stanford) of Seaford, Delaware; one brother-in-law, Dudley Lloyd of Seaford, Delaware; and a host of grandchildren, great grand children, great great grandchildren, and numerous other family members and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Delaware Hospice Center, 100 Patriots Way, Milford, DE 19963.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ I would like to offer my condolences for your loss. I hope you will find comfort in knowing that Jehovah, the God of all comfort, will soon eliminate all grief and provide permanent consolation when “all those in the memorial tombs will hear [Christ’s] voice and come out”! (John 5:28, 29) God promises that “he will do away with death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.” (Isa. 25:8) Then, instead of having to “weep with those who weep,” all earth’s inhabitants will “rejoice with those who rejoice.”?—Rom. 12:15.

“ My deepest condolences and heartfelt prayers to my Aunt Wilsie, cousins Larry, Ardelia, Barry, Constance, Donald, Alvin and Vanessa, and all family and friends. I’m going to miss Uncle Frederick’s smile and great sense of humor. He always brought me joy whenever I was in his presence. Rest on, Uncle.

Love,

Jacque’
