“ To the Family, I\u2019m so sorry for your loss. Matthew 22:32, Jesus quoted God as saying: \u2018I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.\u2019 Then he continued: \u2018He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living.\u2019 I know that those words mean that those retained in God\u2019s memory and will return in the resurrection.\u201d Ms Woodson

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences on the loss of your loved one. May the wonderful memories of your loved one continue to provide a measure of comfort to you until God\u2019s promise is fulfilled at John 5: 28, 29.

“ My wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We hope that in some small way we may comfort you as we have been comforted by what the Bible reveals to us about all those who have died. God's son, Jesus Christ promises us that one day he will bring back to life all those who have died (Acts 24:15; John 5:28,29), just as he did when he was a man here on earth (John 11:43,44). What a glorious day that will surely be! We know it's a reality and a sure hope because the Bible tells us that it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10,11). Until that happy day, we pray you are comforted by this promise from God (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). Our prayers and thoughts are with you as we each do our very best to remain faithful and to endure until that day comes (Matthew 24:13).
