

George Henry Tull

August 16, 1933 - January 11, 2013

George Henry Tull, Jr. 79, of Pocomoke City, Maryland departed this life on Friday, January 11, 2013 in Frederica, Delaware after a brief illness.

George was born on August 16, 1933, to George Henry Tull, Sr. and Sarah Jane Brittingham Tull of Pocomoke, Maryland. He was preceded in death by his loving parents; his wife, Helen Annette Tull; two sons, Franklin Lee Tull and Ralph Edward Harmon and his brother, Alma Henry Tull.

He was educated in the Worcester school system and worked numerous jobs to provide for his family. He spoke fondly of his days working at Birds Eye and Buddy Boys. He retired from UMES where he was the Custodial Manager.

George was a quiet, gentle man who loved gardening, talking about the Lord and enjoyed sharing his faith in God. He joined St. James United Methodist Church at an early age and continued to glorify God even in his last days.

George leaves to cherish his memory twelve children, Irene Tull of Delmar, DE; Faye Fuller of Bel Air, MD; Wayne Tull of Salisbury, MD; Linda Tull of Pocomoke, MD; Deborah Monroe of Joppa, MD; Paulette Parker of Frederica, DE; Wennette Pitts of Salisbury, MD; Sharon Jones of Queenstown, MD; Sherwood Tull of Stone Mountain, GA; Rodney Harmon of Bowie, MD; Willie James Harmon, Jr. of Mitchellville, MD; Grace Bagwell of Ft. Myers, FL; a lifelong friend, Margaret Tull; and a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, family and friends.

Tribute Wall

NJ

“ We love you PopPop George, rembering the days in Pocomoke when we would come visit you and Grandma Helen during the summers, riding on the back of your truck...

Nikima Johnson - January 17, 2013 at 12:00 AM