“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. During difficult times like this we are reminded how precious and fragile life can be (James 4:14). But as family and friends comfort and encourage one another, may you also find comfort and a sure hope in the inspired words of God in His Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). As the God of all comfort, as the Bible describes Him, He wants us to have a bright future and a hope (Jeremiah 29:11). That is why Jesus words are recorded in the Bible where he promises to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). He wants us to exercise faith in him to assure us that our dead loved ones will come back to life (John 11:25). Death is an enemy not only to mankind, but also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). So, when the dead come back to life, they will experience something mankind has never experience, a life removed of all pain, suffering, wickedness, and death forever (Revelation 21:3-5; Isaiah 25:8; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). All He wants from us is to do His Will and be blessed forever (1 John 2:17). Please read all these scriptures and be comforted with the wonderful hope that lies ahead (Psalm 1:1-3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
