

Georgene Castella Thompson-Boston

November 4, 1956 - July 7, 2017

Georgene Castella Thompson-Boston, a resident of Salisbury, Maryland, departed this earthly life on Friday, July 7, 2017 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland at the age of sixty (60). Born on November 4, 1956, she was the daughter of the late Mary Lee Whaley-Thomas and George Thompson.

Georgene received her education in the Wicomico County public school district. After graduating from James M. Bennett High, she attended Strayer University. She later became a CNA at Bayshore Service and before her untimely death, she was employed with the Holly Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

Georgene, or “Jeanie”, as she was lovingly known, was the life of the party. She was always smiling and always willing to help if she could. The one thing she wanted more than anything was to see her grandchildren and she was blessed with four angels. Jeanie was always talking about her grandchildren and how she couldn't wait to get home to them.

She will be lovingly missed by two daughters, Tiana Stewart (Bernard) and Shamika Church; four grandchildren, Senoj (Pooder), Frederica (Freddy), Phailyn (Phai) and My'Haj (Haji); one brother, Percy Brown; two nephews, Terence A. Brown and Justice (James) Brown; her ex-husband, Thomas

Boston, Jr.; very good friends, Harriet Colbourne, Lauren Dorman, Debbie Jones, and Karen Rogers and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brother, James Lee Brown, one nephew, Demetrius Brown and one niece Katina Singleton.

Georgene will be greatly missed by everyone who knew her.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Family,

So sorry to hear of Georgene's passing. As second cousins, we had not seen each other since childhood. I do have fond memories of spending time with her at my aunt Ella's (her grandmother's) home. Please take rest in the knowledge that our family is praying for yours.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy in the loss of your loved one. The bible gives us comfort and the hope of seeing our loved ones again. At Acts 24:15, it tells us that the dead will be resurrected. Please look forward to that time. Until then may your entire family be comforted and blessed.

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one (Proverbs 17:17). At difficult times like this we realize how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). As your family and friends comfort one another, as a neighbor we pray you also be comforted by the sure hope the Bible gives us for all those who have died (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). As recorded in the Bible, Jesus promised that one day he was going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29). That is why he encourages all of us to exercise faith in that promise, the life that Jesus gave in our behalf, and be blessed as we see that promise fulfilled (John 11:25; 3:16; 6:40; James 2:17). The Bible makes it clear that death is an "enemy" not only to mankind, but also to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). That is also why God promises to remove forever all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and death that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). At that time soon, as the Bible indicates, both the living and the dead who are brought back to life will enjoy life, everlasting life, as God originally purposed for this earth thousands of years ago in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 1:28; Jeremiah 29:11). What a glorious day that will be for mankind who are doing what God asks of us, namely that we simply do His Will, not our own (1 John 2:17; 5:3; Proverbs 3:5, 6). Please read and meditate on all these scriptures in your Bible and be comforted and blessed (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
