

Geraldine Rosie Jackson (Taylor)

June 23, 1927 - May 31, 2019

“From Mourning to Rejoicing”

The Obituary

Geraldine Rosie Jackson, the daughter of the late Caroline Marshall Ward and Corzie Taylor, was born on June 23, 1927 in Crisfield, Maryland. After traveling life’s journey for ninety-one (91) years and struggling with a lengthy illness, she gently and peacefully closed her eyes to take her eternal rest on Friday afternoon, May 31, 2019 at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland.

She was educated in the Somerset County public school system. For many years, she worked in the seafood industry and later as a library aide at Crisfield High School.

Geraldine was married to James Howard Jackson, Sr. for sixty-two (62) years until his untimely death on November 3, 2002.

She was feisty, humorous and a good cook, especially at family reunions with her chicken and dumplings. She also fried a mean fish. She was nosy and wanted to know everything about everybody. She was very well- informed.

Geraldine was a lifelong member of Highway Holiness and was a member of the Mother Board and was always the first to pay her dues. She sometime attended Living Hope Ministries in Hopewell, Maryland. Geraldine was saved; she was and is a child of God.

Loving memories will remain with: her son, James Howard Jackson, Jr. (Carolyn); grandsons, George Ward, Jr. (Muhaymeen ShaKur), Cedric Ward, James Jackson III, Jamel Jackson and Christian Williams; granddaughters, Nicole Miles (Kevin), Anitra Hernandez (Francisco), Tonya Childs (David) and Princess Harrison; 27 great grandchildren; 9 great-great grandchildren; one remaining sister, Pastor Dorothy Holden, three special nieces, Reverend Dr. Doretha Sutton Whittington, Faye McCready and Helen Sutton Murray; a special nephew, Larry Horsey and a host of family and friends.

In addition to her parents, Caroline Marshall Ward and Corzie Taylor and her husband James "Babeboy" Jackson, Sr., she was preceded in death by her son, George Ward, Sr., eight sisters and three brothers.

SORROWFULLY SUBMITTED ~ THE FAMILY

Tribute Wall

HF

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces.\u201c

H. F. - June 09, 2019 at 10:29 AM