“ My heart goes out to the Truitt-Handy family during this very difficult time of lossing their young one. Germani has left you with many precious memories during her way too short years with you all. I hope the Truitt-Handy family find comfort and strength knowing Jesus with the help of Jehovah God, who doesn't lie, promises that we will see Germani again by means of an earthly resurrection. The Truitt-Handy family is in my prayers and I offer my heartfelt condolences.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort (2 Cor. 1:3) give you what you need to endure as you wait on his promises to be fulfilled at Isaiah 25.8 and John 5:28, 29.

“ You have our warmest thoughts and deepest sympathy for your most precious loss. We could never imagine the sadness you must feel at this most difficult time. I'm sure that words could never ease the pain and heartache that you are suffering. May God comfort you with his loving promise at Acts 24:15. Please remember that he knows your pain and the many tears that you cry. His promises for the future to be reunited with your beloved daughter again prayerfully will comfort your hearts. (Revelation 21:4, 5) You're in our prayers. John 5:28 says, "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. May this promise comfort your family.

“ I am sorry to read of the passing of your beautiful little girl Germani. My heart indeed hurts for you. As a mother myself I can only imagine the pain you are experiencing right now. Please know that Our Heavenly Father is here for you, because he indeed "cares for you."(1Peter 5:7) I invite you to turn to him in prayer and he will surely sustain you at this difficult time as well as the days ahead. May each passing day get a little easier as life returns to normal.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. We send this condolence with the sure hope the Bible provides all of us at difficult times like this.

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). As death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to Almighty God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove from this earth FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious day that will surely be! It's a reality and a sure hope that we can trust in because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2).

My wife and I sincerely encourage you to look up and meditate on these noted scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16; 2 Timothy 3:16, 17). You will surely be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope our Grand Creator has in store for us (John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ To the family, please except my condolences. I pray that you find comfort in the promise that God will soon do away with death. Rev. 21:1-5, the promise there is that "death will be no more". Clinge to His promises knowing that soon our loved ones will be awakened. (John 5:28,29)
