“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I can't say that I know how you feel at this time and I don't know your pain, but the Bible recommends, " Rejoice with those who rejoice and weep with people who weep “,so until your tears turn into joy, for this reason; I would like to extend my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one.-Romans 12:15. I would also like to share my belief on the resurrection hope with you(Acts 24:15). Soon Jesus will fulfill God's will on earth, by raising up and restoring back to life, those who are now sleeping in death; with the wonderful prospect of living forever on the restored Paradise earth, where sickness and death will no longer plague mankind.-John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessing unfolds and you share in the reunion with your deceased loved one; may God(Psalms 83:18) grant your family peace and comfort, during this grievous time.-Isaiah 66:13.

“ To the Finch Family: May the comfort found in God's word bring your family solace during this most grievous time. Jesus stated: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life;" (John 11:25) "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." (Daniel 12:2) May the thought of being reunited with your loved one right here on earth under perfect conditions bring you comfort. (Rev. 21:4,5)
