“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus' promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ Please except my sincere condolences. The lost of a loved one to the enemy death is a most stressful event. The faithful man Job stated: "If a man dies, can he live again? I will wait all the days of my compulsory service Until my relief comes. You will call and I will answer..." Job 14:14 Job knew when he made this statement that there is going to be a resurrection of those asleep in the graves. "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 This gives us the opportunity to be reunited with our deceased loved ones right here on earth under perfect conditions. Rev. 21:4,5 May reflecting on the good times shared with Gladys in the past, and what may occur in the future, bring you a measure of comfort.
