“ *Cousin Mae was related to my family on my grandfather's side, and lived diagonally across the street from William & Martha Fullman; my mother Lillian Fullman Wharton and other family members. I can remember my most recent conversation with her after one of her falls and she was just taking it easy. We enjoyed our talks and she will be surely missed. Only God knows best! “ My dearest cousin Mae,

Our family is heartbroken to hear that we have lost our families most recent Centenarian. I am blessed to have spoken to you before your passing and will miss seeing you, our phone conversations and your wise council over the years. You always spoke lovely of my Grandfather as you viewed him as your brother. I thank you and cousin Edith for making your homes my home (which to this day, remains forever home in my heart)....I never understood why until learning that both you and cousin Edith raised my Grandfather (Charles I. Mason) after the passing of his mother. I am forever thankful because my Grandfather/Grandmother (Doris Mason) both in-turn raised me. It has much to do with that educator gene that runs through the branches of our family tree which now continues in my family....I am grateful (Blessed) none the less.

I will forever have fond memories of a city boy coming to what I thought was the country, chasing chickens and running from cousin Edith's house past your house to the field while Na Na fussed at me for putting a hole in my new suit pants when we visited to attend uncle Harry's funeral. Please give our love/hugs to cousin Alfred whom I am sure is happy to see his best friend....along with the multitude of other family members and friends who are with you! And, while you will see me/us in the future, it may be a while as I'm praying that within me/us are those 99 to 100 year-mark genes that both you and Uncle Alonzo possessed are within me/us. I will love you forever!

Our condolences go out to all of our extended families and to the friends of cousin Mae.

“ Aunt Gladys was married to my Uncle Alfred Johnson.

After 100 years in this life, she is now in her heavenly home . I loved her very much. May the Grace of God be with her family and her church family during this time. I'm going to miss our many late night conversations. Peace and Blessings to all.

“ Sis. Gladys Johnson was the oldest member and a pillar in our church, M.F. Chase Unity Memorial. A true believer and friend that I will miss for her guidance and wisdom that she added to my life and many others. After 100 years upon this earth you deserve your rest...you will be missed.

“ I'm deeply saddened at the great loss of Cousin Mae Johnson. She was a beloved family member and an honored family elder. She also had a distinctive place as the oldest living relative on the Harris Family Tree. With much gratitude, I am so thankful to God for having her grace my life with her presence, wisdom and knowledge. My deepest sympathies to all family members. Rest well Cousin Mae, until then.
