“ Glenn I know you are looking down right now at the grieving friends and family. We surely cannot even begin to know the beauty, love and peace you have been given by our God, or the joy you received as you entered the gates of Heaven. You are saying please don't cry for me, I am in the place that Jesus planned for me of the day of my birth. It is always so hard for us to lose a friend or family member, Just remember they are in the arms of Jesus. They walk hand in hand with him and they receive the greatest love anyone could ever imagine. Love You Glen, and my prayers are with your family. Dave Watson

“ Dear Family,
It is with great sadness that we offer our condolences on the loss of Glenn. We have known Mr Otho and and Glenn for many years and came to love them both. I can not ever remember a time that I saw either of them without a smile on their faces. I will carry the memory of these two kind and gentle spirits in my heart forever. May God keep his loving arms around your family until you meet again where death will be no more.

“ Glen was one of my best friends. During his last days, I spent a significant amount of time with my buddy. He remained strong, filled with so much encouragement, and his faith in GOD was witnessed by many. I will miss him terribly. My heart aches from the loss of this one-of-a-kind friend. So many memories to cherish. I will never forget him, ever!!!

To Gwen, Sarah, and the family, may GOD continue to bless you, hold you, keep you, and carry you through this difficult times. Remember, GOD said it BEST in HIS WORD @ Joshua 1:5, "No man shall be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, I will be with you also. I will never leave you nor forsake you". Trust HIM always. Glen may be gone, but he is NOT forgotten. GOD BLESS YOU!!!

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. During such difficult times we reflect on how fragile life can really be. May you find support and encouragement from family and friends. Much comfort and hope is also derived from reading God's Word, the Bible (2 Timothy 3:16, 17). Jesus promised, for example, that the day would come when all those who have died will "hear his voice" and come back to life again as God had purposed through the ransom sacrifice (John 5:28, 29; John 3:16). Until that day may you meditate on God's Word with the intent and desire to do His Will (1 Timothy 1:3, 4; John 17:3). In so doing he promises all of us a future everlasting life on earth to include a resurrection of our dear loved ones (Psalm 37:10, 11, 29; Revelation 21:3-5). During your grief, when you can, please look up and meditate on these wonderful scriptures (Psalm 1:1-3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.
