“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ Remembering Mrs. Gloria Barkley Johnson! She was my 1st grade to the 5th grade teacher in the one-room school in Hebron, MD for all Black children.

She was my idol, I really adored her as a young child, she taught me to have pride in my handwriting, spelling, reading and all that you do and present. I thank God that I got to have a time to meet her again as an adult when she returned to the Eastern Shore. I thank God she instilled pride in us as young students which carried us through the rest of our lives.

She remembered even down to the plays we produced in that one room school!

God bless her family as you say good bye to your Aunt.

I truly loved her!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your recent loss. My heart goes out to you and your family. I have always received comfort from the Bible's word at Philippians 4:7 which reads “and the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your heart and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus”. I hope you can receive comfort from these words as well. Margo Simmons
