“ Mom mom I just want to say that I love you and God knows I will miss you forever and always. I'm gonna miss the visits with me and my kids coming to see you, I'm going to miss the way u light right up when we walk thru them curtains and say hey "wake up woman" . I'm going to miss the way u grab my hand and say don't worry, everything is going to be okay, I'm not going any where. Grammom you are my heart and always will be and nobody... I mean no one will ever change that. You may be gone but you will never be forgotten. As these tears shed, I know your free.. I know your watching me from above and u will always be in my heart forever and always, it's sad that I couldn't hear your voice when I called last week. But I'm just glad I did get to see you in your final resting place, the look in your eyes on that night I will never forget. I love you. My kids love you and we always will. And until we meet again. Walk Pain Free into the gates of Heaven. I Love And Miss You So Much Already.

“ I knew her as mom. I'm sorry for all of the pain that she had to endure during her last days. I'm glad that she's not suffering any more. No more windows to stare out of. No more control. We had a lot of happy memories that I will always cherish. I'll always remember all of the holiday dinners that we cooked. The cookies that we ate and your sweet potato pie and tomato pudding. I really missed the late nite talks that we had before he went to bed and the day trips that me, you, and the kids use to take. We didn't agree on much at the end but you were the only mom I knew. I hope that you found peace. I missed you before and I miss u now. Love you always, The Forgotten Daughter.
