

Grayson Lee Ewell Sr.

July 8, 1930 - January 2, 2017

“I am free, praise the Lord!”

“I am free, no longer bound, no more chains holding me.”

On January 2, 2017, he peacefully went on to be with the Lord. Grayson Lee Ewell, affectionately known as Toby, was born in Hoarsely, Virginia to the late Ellen Barker and John Bill Ewell.

Grayson was educated in the Accomac County school system. He was well known for his building ability and mechanical skills, which were his passion. He worked for Siani Trucking in South Wilmington, DE and Prince Produce until his health failed and he became disabled. Grayson was also known to have a great passion and love for his children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren and he let it be known.

One of Grayson’s most memorable statements on January 1st, at Peninsula Regional Medical Center in Salisbury, Maryland, was the fact that he had made his peace with his “Lord Jesus Christ” and he was ready to go to be with the Lord.

Grayson (Toby) leaves to cherish fond memories: his wife, Pastor Hattie M. Ewell, of Pocomoke, MD; his children, Pamela M. Ewell of New Castle, DE, Dorothy E. Ewell of Newport, DE, Grayson L. Ewell, Jr. of Wilmington, DE, Jonathan L. (Alice) Ewell of Pocomoke, MD, Larry Savage of Cordova, CA and Corline Mayor of Clarkesville, TN; one stepson, Andre (Nadra) Spence of Hinesville, GA; one step daughter, Rosetta (Richard) Ayers of Wattsville, VA; one special daughter, Erica Ewell of Pocomoke, MD and one sister, Eunice Corbin, of Philadelphia, PA. He also leaves to mourn a host of grandchildren, great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

He was preceded in death by he daughters Charlotte May Savage and Mary Delores Savage.

To the Family of the Late Brother Grayson Ewell:

The entire congregation of The Greenhill Church extend heartfelt sympathy in the passing of Brother Ewell. We cannot offer you the answer to the “why”, but we do believe that we have a wonderful God and Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, that will be there in your times of grief and pain.

The Bible gives great assurance for the Christian as it says in 1 Corinthians 15:55: O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory? In other words, we know that even though death has “a word” here on this earth, it does not have the “final word” since we know the Resurrection of Christ has removed the “sting and gave us victory.”

The Greenhill Church family wishes to say to our cherished member, Sister Corline Maynor and the entire Ewell family that if you will remain faithful, God will sustain you as you look to Him for encouragement and healing. May God bless you and may he continue to keep you is our prayer.
