

Harmond L. Ross Sr.

March 17, 1946 - May 4, 2014

Harmond (Herman) Lee Ross, Sr. was born on March 17, 1946 in Seaford, Delaware to the late Herman Lee Wright and the late Myrtle Ross Wright. He departed this life according to God's plan on May 4, 2014 at the age of 68. He received his education in the Seaford School District and William Henry High School. As a young man, he attended First Church of Deliverance under the leadership of the late Pastors Hilton and Hattie Palmer. He attended home services his mother held, until her illness.

He was employed at James Thompson of Greenwood, Delaware for over 40 years. He retired a few years ago due to illness. He formerly worked at Caroline Poultry, Cargill Poultry and T.S. Smith & Sons.

Herman's pleasures of life were working on his job, his family, hunting with his brothers or sons, raising his hunting dogs, attending car races, watching Nascar on television, riding those lawn mowers he had, or simply sitting under the trees shooting the breeze with family or friends.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his daughter, Evelyn Jefferson. He leaves to cherish his memories his sons: Herman Ross, Jr., Leslie Ross and Terrence Ross all of Bridgeville, DE; his daughter, Sheila Ross of Laurel, DE; his step-daughter, Gwendolyn Bishop; his brothers: Charles Ross, Sr. of Smyrna, DE, Clarence Wright, Donald Wright (Janet) of Harrington, DE, Kevin Wright of North Carolina; his sister, Alyce Wright of Dover, DE; 19 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am sorry for your loss; please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus' promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
