Celebration of Life

Harold Edward Jones, Sr.

“Buster”

Harold Edward Jones, Sr. or “Buster”, as he was affectionately known, was born to the late Hattie C. Jones and James Holbrook on September 29, 1947. Buster was called to his heavenly home on Sunday, February 10, 2019 at his residence in Salisbury, Maryland. Buster lived a long and prosperous life of seventy-one (71) years.

He received his formal education in Somerset County, Maryland. His employment included the United States Army, Campbell Soup Company, Purity Bacon, and George Barnes Nursery as a water man. He had a love for fishing, hunting, shucking oysters and talking about working on Skipjacks. He attended Trinity Faith Christian Center in Fruitland, Maryland, where he sang with the Men’s Choir.

Buster leaves to cherish his memories: two sons, Andre Jones of Newark, Delaware and Harold E. Jones, Jr. of Baltimore, Maryland; two daughters, Kyneashia Harrison of Baltimore, Maryland and Robyn Bailey of Newark, Delaware; two granddaughters, Breanna Rhock and Joslyn Grinnage; one grandson, Daquan Winder; one great-granddaughter, Josie Grinnage; four sisters, Julia (Philp) Garrison, Florence (Joseph) Jones, Rose (Gregory) Cottman and Ruth Ballard and two brothers, Edwin (Grace) Jones and Gene Holbrook. He also leaves a host of aunts, uncles, niece, nephews and friends, as well as two special brothers, Harold and Stephen Woolford and a special sister Attrue Gayle.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Joyce and Gaylen Holbrook and two brothers, Darnell and Benjamin Holbrook.

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me;
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
why cry for a soul set free.

“ During this most difficult time the scriptures serve as a comfort zone. 2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17; 2Corinthians 1:3, 4 Helping us to see that our pain and suffering will be a thing of the past, and we can cry tears of joy as we welcome back the ones that we love so much. John 5:28, 29; Revelation 21:4 I hope you find comfort in these promises. My deepest sympathy goes out to all the family.

“ Dear Family, I like to express my sincere condolences for your loss during this most painful time. But in time there is only one who can solve all our problems and do away with sickness and death, it is our heavenly Father. So please find comfort from His word. 2Corinthians 1:3, 4; Isaiah 25:8a; Hosea 13:14

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ To the family, My sincere condolences in the passing of Harold. Please find comfort in the words of 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4: "Praised be..... the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials so that we may be able to comfort others in any sort of trial with the comfort that we receive from God." God will comfort and strengthen you as you grieve to the extent that you will be able to comfort others who face similar trials. Paradise awaits Harold. (Luke 23:43)

“ My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My condolences to the Jones families. Some Bible scriptures that have helped me during times of loss include Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:28,29 which states in part: "Your dead ones will live... They will rise up". And the Bible also says "The righteous themselves will possess the earth and they will forever reside upon it". Therefore the Bible promises that we may be reunited with our loved ones lost in death by means of an earthly resurrection. This is further confirmed by John 5:28,29 which says "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This is possible thanks to Jesus Christ's ransom sacrifice. Thus we have a genuine hope of everlasting life in a world without wickedness or suffering.
