

Harold L. Massey

April 1, 1941 - May 24, 2017

The son of the late Hazel Olivia and William Massey was born on April 1, 1941 in Dover, Delaware. Harold made his peaceful transition from his earthly home on Wednesday, May, 24, 2017, at the tender age of 76, in the company of his loved ones. Harold was preceded in death by his mother, Hazel Olivia Massey, his father William Massey, brothers Paul and Charles Massey, and sister, Amelia Dudley, all of Dover, Delaware.

Harold was educated at Booker T. Washington, before joining the United States Air Force. He had a love for trucks early on in his life. After leaving the military, he drove trucks for the remainder of his life before retiring from Eastern Mail Transit.

Harold adored his grandchildren and was known for helping friends and countless family members. He had a special way of touching the heart of everyone that came in contact with him. Harold was a loving, caring person to all, as well as a father, brother, grandfather, and uncle to so many others.

Harold is survived by his sons, Harold Holland and William A. Loper, Sr., of Dover; two daughters, Andrea Gibbs (Robert) of Lawton, OK and Ronshell Jones (Fred) of Clayton, DE; a great aunt Marion Winder of Dover, DE; brother, William J. Massey, Sr. of Dover, DE; sister, Geraldine Durant (James) of Dover, DE, 14 grandchildren: Mahogany Holland, Lorenzo Evans, Devon

Evans, Robert Gibbs II, Deandre Gibbs, Jordan Gibbs, Nikayla Gibbs, Quameisha Loper, Dashere Lewis, William A. Loper, Jr., Wakee Loper, Dehaza Loper, Darian Jones, and Jasmine Jones; six great grandchildren, and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews.

“ To My Family
As I am unable to attend the funeral of my dearly loved cousin, I join you in spirit. Harold I truly loved and will miss greatly.
Knowing that he is at peace and among all of those family members that have gone on before him, I smile knowing all of them welcome him to a place of sweet spirit and streets paved with gold.
The memories I have of my dear cousin will live on in my heart.

God Bless all of my family at this time and know that God will give you the strength to see you through. Trust him.

I love you all,

Georgette, Thomas, Jahmaar and Chris
