

Harriet Blondein Emory

November 18, 1951 - January 19, 2018

Our Heavenly Father called his beloved child, Harriet B. Emory, home. She earned her wings and went from labor to reward on January 19, 2018. Blondein, as she was fondly called, was born November 18, 1951, in Chestertown, Maryland. She was the youngest of four children.

Harriet graduated from Chestertown High in 1969. Prior to graduation, she attended Henry Highland Garnett. Her employment included Vita Foods, Slagle, and Dixon Value textile company, until her retirement.

Blondine enjoyed taking care of her family and friends. She made her home a “home” for many of her nieces and nephews and welcomed all to her humble abode. She love Mickey Mouse, so much so that she had his tattoo on her right arm. She also loved Hello Kitty and any Apple electronic device.

Blondein gave her life to Christ and was seeking membership at Bethel A.M.E. until her health challenges surfaced. She enjoyed studying the Bible and the Book of Discipline of the A.M.E. Church. She continued to support the church’s activities from the children to the seniors.

Harriet witnessed the passing of her parents Ulysses G. and Catherine; brother, Ulysses, Jr.; aunts, Betty Cook and Dorothy Robinson; Tilghman & Bertha, Charles & Lolly, Hattie and Dan, Daisy & Linwood, and a host of cousins and friends.

Harriet leaves to cherish her memories, two sisters, Annette Black and Brenda Keyes; one adopted brother, William Demby; two sisters-in-law, Irish Emory and Antonette Demby; two nieces, Nina Wallace and Krishawn Demby; three nephews, Jackie Black, Tyrone Emory and Ulysses Emory; and a host of great nieces and nephews.

“My dear wife and I would like to extend our condolences for the loss of your loved one. All of us have experienced the pain of death in some way sad to say. And, so, at difficult times like this we are confronted with the stark reality of how precious and fragile life can surely be (James 4:14). So, my wife and I send this condolence to you with the hope that we can in some small way comfort you as it has comforted us with what the Bible reveals to us about GOOD NEWS from Almighty God. Please be assured that we are in no way trying to impose our faith on you; but we sincerely just want to extend comfort to you during your grief (Proverbs 17:17).

As recorded in the Bible, God's only-begotten son, Jesus promises that one day he is personally going to bring back to life all those who have died, just as he did when he was on earth as a man (John 5:28, 29; 11:43, 44). Just as death is an enemy to us, it is also an enemy to God (1 Corinthians 15:26). For that reason, as well as others, He promises to remove FOREVER all the pain, suffering, wickedness, and DEATH that mankind has had to endure for thousands of years (Revelation 21:3-5; Psalm 37:10, 11, 29). What a glorious and almost unbelievable day that will be! It's a reality and a sure hope we can rely on because it is absolutely impossible for God to lie (Titus 1:2; Isaiah 55:10, 11).

It is our hope that you NOT take our word for what has been written in this condolence; but we encourage you to please take a moment to read and meditate on all these referenced scriptures in your own Bible (1 Timothy 4:15, 16). My wife and I are confident you will be encouraged and comforted by the marvelous hope God has in store for us (Psalm 1:1-3; John 17:3). Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ May your hearts soon be filled with wonderful memories of joyful times together. We will soon reap the blessings of Jesus' sacrificial death. (John 3:16) Soon, Jehovah God, will authorize his beloved son, Jesus Christ, to resurrect our loved ones to life again on a peaceful new world. (John 5:27-29; Psalm 37:11)
