

Harvey L. Lewis

March 17, 1926 - January 6, 2015

Harvey L. Lewis was born on March 17, 1926 to Elizabeth Lewis. He spent most of his life in the Felton-Harrington area.

He served his country in World War II from 1942-1945. He also worked as a truck driver for the late Carl Woods. He loved truck driving. He worked with the Harrington Raceway of Delaware, where he was a horse groomer. Harvey loved a good cookout with family and friends. He enjoyed watching western movies and sitting under a tree talking with his friends.

He departed this life on January 6, 2015, at the Delaware Hospital after a long illness.

He leaves to cherish his memory his daughter, Sheila Lewis and grandson, Anthony Lewis; granddaughter, Ayrria Hicks; six great-grandchildren; his nieces, Nancy Giddis and Linda Cotton; six nephews, Issac Cotton, Gerald Cotton, Larry Cotton, Therman Cotton, Don Cotton and Tony Cotton; his friend for many years, Elise Hicks along with the Hicks family; and a host of other family and friends.

“ I offer my sincere condolences for your great loss. May the God of comfort, comfort and sustain you during this difficult time. His word tells us: "He will swallow up death forever, And the Sovereign Lord will wipe away the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8 "And the last, enemy, death will be brought to nothing." 1 Corinthians 15:26 "There is going to be a resurrection..." Acts 24:15 "Many of those asleep in the dust of the earth will wake up." Daniel 12:2 May pondering over these promises from God bring you comfort and hope of seeing your loved one again.
