

Hattie Virginia Pinckens

August 30, 1931 - February 19, 2017

Hattie Virginia Pinckens (better known as “Hattie Lee”) age 85, passed way at the University of Maryland Shore Medical Center of Easton Maryland on Sunday, February 19, 2017, after a long illness.

Hattie Lee was born on August 30, 1931, in Dorchester County to the late Carrie Jones and John Briggs. Hattie Lee attended Lockerman High School. In addition to taking care of her family, she performed factory work, domestic work, as well as care giving.

Hattie Lee loved to cook and entertain family and friends. She would prepare a special meal for every holiday. She also loved to barbeque during the summer.

Even during the later years of her illness, she was always particular about her appearance, and had to be fully dressed every day. She often looked forward to fried fish, potatoes and cornbread, and the many trips to Bridgeville to get that home-made ice cream.

Hattie Lee attended Zion Methodist Church in Federalsburg, MD, where she was a member of the United Women’s Society.

In addition to her parents, Hattie Lee was predeceased by her twin sister Annie “Lee” Green, brother Orville Jones and her husband of 55 years, Isaac Andrew Pinckens. Hattie Lee leaves to mourn two sons, Medford Jones (Ruth) of Hurlock, MD, and Isaac Pinckens of Federalsburg, MD; three daughters, Virginia Diane Sample of Edgewood, MD, Teresa Pinckens of Lawrenceville, GA, and Darcelle Pinckens of Upper Marlboro, MD; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren and nine great-great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and special friends.
