“ My deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. While nothing will completely take away your grief, by meditating on Gods promises found in the Bible, you can find real hope and the strength to keep going. My family and I have found the scripture at Isaiah 25:8 to be especially comforting. Here it promises that God "will swallow up death forever and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces."

“ To all of the Clark family,
I just now read yesterday's paper and saw your mother's obituary. I was so sorry to hear about Helen's passing. I have very fond memories of her when I was growing up. Please know that all of you are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. I know what it feels like to lose your mother. I pray for God's peace and comfort to you all today and in the days ahead. Blessings and hugs to you all.
