

Henry Graff

December 5, 1940 - November 27, 2021

Henry L. Graff of Greenwood, Delaware, passed away on November 27, 2021. He was born on December 5, 1940.

Henry enjoyed going out to dinner, spending time with his dog, Toby, weekends with his two granddaughters, and watching old western TV shows. On Saturday nights he also enjoyed going to the dirt track with his wife and cheering on his favorite racer.

Henry worked many security jobs throughout his life and worked at a local nursery. Anyone who knew him knew he was meticulous about his appearance. He always made sure his shoes were shined, his face was shaven and he had a fresh haircut.

Henry was preceded in death by his mother, Viola Graff; his father, Harvey Graff; sister, Annabell Collison; and his loving wife of 47 years, Louise M. (Murphy) Graff.

Henry is survived by his son, Brian Murphy, and wife, Alice of Greenwood, DE; oldest granddaughter, Dashia Kahler (Peter) of Harrington, DE; youngest granddaughter, Darlena Murphy, also known as his "Dumpling"; niece, Geri Messick; two nephews, John and Harvey Collison; as well as his best friend of many years, John Cline.

Henry will be missed by many friends and family.
