

Herbert McKinley Hood

December 6, 1959 - November 4, 2018

Herbert McKinley Hood of Hollis, Oklahoma, departed this life on Sunday, November 4, 2018, after an extended illness. He was born on December 6, 1959, in Rehoboth, Delaware, to Harry Layfield Pettyjohn and Cora Hood Miller.

Herbert graduated from Cape Henlopen High School, in 1978, and joined the United States Army. After 20 years, he retired from the military and joined the police force in Lawton, Oklahoma. Upon leaving the force in Lawton, Herbert briefly worked at police forces in Cache and Hollis. Herbert served as a Deacon and kitchen supervisor at Calvary Community Church.

“Mic”, as we lovingly called him, was a well-loved person. His smile would light up a room. He loved working in his community and creating an OBBS (Our Boys Becoming Successful) program for the young men of Hollis. He loved cooking for others, hunting, and deep-sea fishing with his brothers. Mic will always live in our hearts.

He is preceded in death by his father, Harry Layfield Pettyjohn; stepfather, Martin Miller, Sr.; daughter, Brittany and brother Gerald.

Herbert leaves to mourn his loving wife, Bakeisha; daughters, Megan, Mandi, and Promise; sons, Brian and Isaac; and three grandchildren, Jayden, Casen and Brysen. He also leaves his mother, Cora; four sisters, Barbara Baker (Dale), Marshelia Hood, Jeremy Williams (Al) and Benetta Miller; three brothers, Martin Miller (Janice), John Miller and Antonio Miller; loving in-laws, Robert "Daddio" and JoAnn Campbell; sisters-in-law, Yolanda and Stephanie Campbell; brother-in-law, Tyrone Campbell (Terracia); aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and a host of cousins and friends.

“ Mic and I worked together on the midnight shift at times when he was a police officer in Lawton. He was always smiling and was one of the kindest men I have ever known. He made the best sweet potato pie. The world will be less without this man. I am so sorry for your loss.
