

Herbert Johnson Jr.

February 13, 1950 - January 20, 2024

HERBERT'S LIFE STORY

Herbert Lee Johnson, Jr., son of the late Herbert and Frances Johnson, was born February 13, 1950 in Wilson, North Carolina. He departed this life on January 20, 2024 at the age of seventy-three (73).

In 1968, at the age of eighteen (18), Herb, as he was known to most, moved from Wilson, North Carolina to Salisbury, Maryland. Herb became well-known by a lot of people. If you knew one, you knew them all, the Johnson Family.

Herb was no stranger to hard work. He always did odd jobs, helping others. If he could help, Herb was going to help. You could always find him with Mr. Major doing a job or at Gene's house because he loved to stay busy. Herb was famous for putting out your trash cans. If you looked outside and your trash can was moved to the curb, you knew who it was.

Herb was a loving and good-spirited person. He was the life of a party because he would party like he was eighteen (18) again. When you saw him walking down the street, with his bob and hat turned to the side, he was coming to enjoy himself. Herb was a fighter until the end and never complained about anything.

Herb leaves to cherish his precious memories: four siblings, Columbus (Angie) Johnson, William Johnson, Theordora Handy and Dorothy Davis; thirteen (13) nieces and nephews, great nieces and great nephews, all of Salisbury, Maryland and many fond memories also linger with a host of special family and friends.

Preceding Herbert Johnson, Jr. in death were: his parents, Herbert and Frances Johnson; grandparents, Abraham and Cora Watson; aunt, Mattie Watson-Fairchild; uncle, Sammy Watson; sister, Paulette Smullen and brothers, Bobby Johnson, Evander Johnson and James Earl Johnson.
