“ Please accept my condolence. My heart goes out to you in your time of sorrow. May you find comforting Job 14:14, 15, which says, “If an able-bodied man dies can he live again? You will call, and I myself shall answer you. For the work of your hands you will have a yearning.”

“ I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. There are many words of comfort I would like to say; however, it has often been found that the best source of comfort is found in God's word. There he tells us: "He is healing the brokenhearted ones. And is binding up their painful spots." (Psalms 147:3) "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8) May the hope of being reunited with your deceased loved one bring you a measure of comfort and joy.

“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.
