HESTER'S LIFE STORY

Hester Jones, at the age of seventy-seven (77) passed from earth to glory on Sunday, February 11, 2024 at her home. She was born to the late Gertrude Fields and James Gary on September 9, 1946 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina.

After attending school in the Wicomico County public school system and graduating from Salisbury High School, Hester worked at Campbell Soup Company for twenty-six (26) years until her retirement in 2011.

After her divorce, Hester continued to remain steadfast in her work and her walk with the Lord. She attended New Dimensions Ministries under the leadership of Reverend Jesse Abbott. She loved to read the Bible and listen to gospel music. She also loved the word search books.

Hester is survived by: her two children, Kevin L. Lucas and Lesa R. Lucas, both of Salisbury Maryland; two brothers, Jess T. Fields, a resident in Genesis Nursing Home and Ernest L. Jones, a resident in GoGetters Rehabilitation Center, both of Salisbury, Maryland; thirteen (13) grandchildren; twenty-two (22) great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins, most of whom reside in Salisbury, Maryland.

Preceding Hester in death were: her mother, Gertrude Fields and father, James Gary; four brothers, Joe N. Jones, James "Tom" Fields, Robert E. Jones (aka) Scooter and Rayfield Jones; two sisters, Mary Alice White and Emma Sylvia Fields; a grandson, Kameron Lucas "Justin" and a daughter-in-law, Angela Lucas.

sometimes when death, it's hard for us to see. How this pain and sorrow, joy can still be. yet the only wise God, that loves us one and all. Even in our darkest hour, he'll never let us fall. For loved ones in this life, as precious as they maybe. Were loaned for just a short time, and than their life must flee. Think of the times she brought you joy, and her memory will always be near.
